Dr. D. D. Shinde, Principal VOGCE motivated yoga is not only a physical exercise where you twist, turn, stretch, and breathe in the most complex ways. These are actually only the most superficial aspect of this profound science of unfolding the infinite potentials of the human mind and soul. It leads to the healthy development of mind, body and soul by mastering certain yoga postures or asanas with breathing techniques. Pranayama needs special mention. Hon. Executive President Mr. Umeshji Jadhav sir guided that yoga improves your brain functions, memory and concentration. He also motivated that yoga means union of the individual consciousness or soul with the Universal Consciousness or Spirit.

Protect Birds From Pets Unleashed dogs and outdoor cats can harm birds by disturbing, chasing, and even killing them. Keeping your cat indoors and your dog from straying saves millions of birds each year.

12 Simple Ways On How To Save Birds From Extinction –

- Provide a source of water : Set up clean water for drinking. Also, clean it regularly to avoid the formation of algae.
- Elevate bird feeders : If you want to provide food for the birds, make sure that the bird feeders are elevated enough to fend off cats.
- Plant native trees and plants : Give the birds a bit of their native landscape and natural environment. This will further aid for their nest building.
- Build bird houses : Bird houses are very popular in areas where nesting trees are scarce.
- Organic gardening : Pesticides or toxic chemicals prove to be harmful to the birds. Avoid chemicals for your gardening, and grow plants organically.

- Mark windows : Birds cannot see the absolutely transparent glass windows and often crash against them and die. Use frosted windows or decals instead.
- Reduce your carbon footprint : Global warming increases the number of pests and ticks which kill birds. Reduce greenhouse gas emissions.
- Don't speed: Many birds die because they fly into vehicles while flying low. Keep your speed slow in order to reduce the impact.
- Avoid plastic products: Many birds mistake the indigestible plastic we throw away for food and consume the same. Avoid using plastic as much as you can. This will also help the environment.
- Protect existing habitats: One of the best ways to save birds from extinction is by protecting their already existing natural habitats from logging and deforestation.
- Limit energy usage: By reducing energy use, a person can help in conserving birds.
- Enjoy and appreciate nature: The last point on how to save birds from extinction is by enjoying nature. Participating in bird watching and nature walks ensures constant appreciation towards the species.
